A Road Back in Time

A Florida History Program that is offered free to all school groups on Thursday, February 1, 2018

Covered picnic tables available.

Visit homes of Seminoles, settlers and soldiers. Hear their stories and speak with them about the hardships of life on the Florida frontier in the 1830s. Students will be able to experience firsthand how these early residents of Florida lived by participating in activities from milking a cow to making candles.

Please call for reservations: 352-793-4781
Operating hours: 9:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.
